

DPW Holdings Announces That It Has Entered Into a Definitive Settlement Agreement in the Derivative Action Filed Against It as a Nominal Defendant and Its Directors

February 25, 2020

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Feb. 24, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- DPW Holdings, Inc. (NYSE American: DPW) a diversified holding company ("DPW," or the "Company") announced that on February 19, 2020, DPW entered into a definitive settlement agreement between Plaintiffs Ethan Young and Greg Young, derivatively on behalf of Nominal Defendant DPW against the Company's then directors and DPW itself, Case No. 2:18-cv-06578, filed in the United States District Court (the "Court") in the Central District of California on July 31, 2018.

Under the terms of the settlement agreement, the Company's Board of Directors will implement certain changes to the Company's bylaws, committee charters, corporate governance policies, and the composition of the Board, including the resignation of a current director and the appointment of two new independent directors. In addition, the parties have agreed upon a payment of attorneys' fees in the amount of $600,000 payable by the Company's Director & Officer liability insurance.

The settlement agreement contains no admission of wrongdoing. The Company has always maintained and continues to believe that it did not engage in any wrongdoing or otherwise commit any violation of federal or state securities laws or other laws.

There can be no assurance that the settlement will be finalized and approved by the Court and, even if approved, whether the conditions to closing will be satisfied, and the actual outcome of this matter may differ materially from the terms of the settlement described herein.

The Company recommends that stockholders, investors and any other interested parties read the Company's public filings and press releases available on its website at www.DPWHoldings.com under the Investor Relations section or available at www.sec.gov.
